JUST HERE THOSE ANVILS RING! FOUR SMITHS ARE IN THE SENATE

Hoke

E. D.

W. Alden.

J. W.

The Smith family put one over on the Joneses in a way both neat and nifty; and they now have four United States senators, who will see to it that the Smiths are properly represented in national legislation.

There is William Alden Smith, the one-time newsboy, and who has worn the toga Michigan gave him some few years. John Walter Smith, of Maryland, has been in the senate since March 25, 1908. Ellison D. Smith came up from South Carolina two years later. The newest Smith is Hoke, the most progressive of them all, whom Georgia has promoted. W. A. S. is the only Republican Smith.

P. S.—There's only one Jones in the senate—Wesley L., of Washington.
